
BEA WebLogic 9/10 Portal Administration

5 days

This course teaches the basics of the administration of Web applications in WebLogic Server 9/10 Portal Server.

Topics

- Portal data manipulation from staging to production environments
- Portal Resources security.
- Propagating and delegating portal administrative capabilities
- Weblogic domain and database support BEA for WebLogic Portal applications
- Federated portal resources
- Configure and tune a content repository
- Index and search content and other information using autonomy

Practical work

This course covers extensive practical exercises; these exercises take students through all major aspects of the WebLogic Portal Server Administration.

What you will learn

After completing this course, the attendees should be able to:

- Product installation
- Portal production architecture
- Portal domains and applications
- Product database schema
- Shared libraries
- Portal deployment plans
- BEA WebLogic Portal Administration Console
- Portal desktop management
- Community management
- Federated portal administration
- Content repository administration
- User profile management
- Visitor entitlements
- Delegated administration
- Portal cache manager
- Autonomy search administration
- BEA AquaLogic Analytics

Audience

Project managers, Web server application assemblers, Web server administrators, decoyers, developers and consultants who want to gain the knowledge of WebLogic Portal Server administration.

Prerequisites

- Fair understanding of network management and protocols.
- Fair understanding of Relational Databases Management